On May 20, 2022, the Court held a hearing to consider approval of the motion (“Motion”) (Doc 240) filed by Hamid R. Rafatjoo, solely in his capacity as the chapter 11 trustee (the “Trustee”) for the estate of Cherry Man Industries, Inc. (the “Debtor”), for entry of an expedited order of the Court: (1) approving the Trustee’s sale of Debtor’s ownership interest in certain personal property comprised of racking and miscellaneous equipment (the “Assets”) located in a warehouse utilized by the Debtor at 2100 Center Square Road, Logan Township, New Jersey, as more particularly described in, and in accordance with, the “Asset Purchase Agreement” (“APA”) attached as Exhibit 1 to the Motion, to East Coast Storage Equipment Company Inc. (“Buyer”), free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances and other interests under U.S.C. §363(f); (2) waiving the 14-day stay period set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h); (3) authorizing the Trustee to use a portion of the proceeds of the sale to pay the post-petition administrative rent obligations of the estate to the Warehouse landlord; and (4) granting related relief. Appearances were as noted on the Court’s record. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined have the same meaning ascribed to such terms in the Motion.

The Court, having read and considered the Motion, the Declaration of Hamid R. Rafatjoo attached to the Motion, the APA, and all other pleadings and papers filed in support of the Motion; notice of the Motion having been proper under the circumstances; no opposition to the Motion having been filed; and it further appearing that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the hearing on the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and good and sufficient cause appearing; hereby finds and determines that:

A. Jurisdiction and Venue. This Court has jurisdiction over the Motion under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This matter relates to the administration of the Debtor’s bankruptcy estate and is accordingly a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A), (N) and (O). Venue of the cases is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

B. Statutory Predicates and Notice. As evidenced by the proofs of service filed with this Court and based upon the Court’s order limiting notice of the Motion, (i) due, proper, timely, adequate and sufficient notice of the Motion, the hearing on the Motion, and the transactions contemplated thereby has been provided in accordance with sections 102(1), 105(a) and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004 and 9006, and in compliance with the APA; (ii) such notice was good, sufficient and appropriate under the circumstances; and (iii) no other or further notice of the Motion, the hearing on the Motion, the APA or the transactions contemplated thereby is or shall be required.

C. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. The findings and conclusions set forth herein constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

D. Opportunity to Object. A reasonable opportunity to object and be heard with respect to the Motion and the APA has been afforded to all interested persons and entities.

E. Sale Free and Clear. The Trustee may sell the Debtor's interest in the Assets, free and clear of all Liens because section 363(f)(1), (2) and (5) of the Bankruptcy Code has been satisfied.

F. Sale "As-Is, Where Is." The sale of the Debtor's interest in the Assets is on an "as is, where is" basis, without any representations or warranties by the Trustee. All of the disclaimers and waivers in the APA are specifically incorporated herein.

G. Sale in Best Interest. Good and sufficient reasons for approval of the APA and the Motion have been articulated. The relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtor's estate, creditors and other parties in interest.

H. Business Justification. The Trustee has demonstrated both (i) a good, sufficient and sound business purpose and justification and (ii) compelling circumstances for the sale other than in the ordinary course of business, pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, in that, among other things, the immediate consummation of the sale to Buyer is necessary and appropriate to maximize the value of the Debtor's estate.

I. Corporate Authority. Subject only to the entry of this Order, the Trustee has full corporate power and authority to execute the APA, and all other documents contemplated thereby, and to consummate the transactions contemplated by the APA. The APA and all of the transactions contemplated thereby have been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action of the Trustee. No consents or approvals, other than the consent and approval of this Court, are required for the Trustee to consummate the sale to Buyer.

J. Arms-Length Sale. The APA was negotiated and entered into by the Trustee without collusion, in good faith and from arms'-length bargaining positions. The Trustee has not engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the APA to be avoided under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

K. Consideration. The consideration provided by Buyer pursuant to the APA (i) is fair and reasonable, (ii) is the highest and best offer for the Debtor's interest in the Assets, and (iii) constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code and under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession or the District of Columbia.

L. No Fraudulent Transfer. The APA was not entered into for the purpose of hindering, delaying or defrauding creditors under the Bankruptcy Code and under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia. The consideration under the APA provided by Buyer is the highest and otherwise best offer received by the estate, and such consideration constitutes reasonably equivalent value for the Debtor's interest in the Assets under the Bankruptcy Code and other applicable law.

M. Prompt Consummation. The sale of the Debtor's interest in the Assets pursuant to the terms of the APA must be approved and consummated promptly in order to preserve the value of the estate and the Assets. Therefore, time is of the essence in consummating the sale, and the Trustee and Buyer intend to close the sale as soon as possible. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), and to any extent necessary under Bankruptcy Rule 9014 and Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 7054, the Court expressly finds that there is no just reason for delay in the implementation of this Order, and expressly directs entry of judgment as set forth herein.
